The present chapel at the Shrine of St. Anthony at Panjora was built in 1906. It is recognized as the national shrine in Bangladesh. Since the weather in the country does not favour for big gathering of people during the actual feast day (June 13), every year the Feastday and Pilgrimage to the shrine are observed on the First Friday of February. 9 days of preparation (Novena Masses and confession) with the presence of thousands occur ahead of the feast.
