Saskatoon

720 Spadina Cres. East, Saskatoon, SK - Saskatoon - Canada

The first Catholic church built in the city of Saskatoon, St. Paul's was constructed in 1910. It was designated the diocesan cathedral when the Roman Catholic Diocese of Saskatoon was created in 1933. St. Paul's was given the designation of Co-Cathedral after the opening of the new diocesan Cathedral of the Holy Family in 2012.
